Check-in is on 29th January and check-out is on 31st January, after the end of the conference.

2. Eligibility and Booking

- Accommodation is available only to delegates who have completed registration and paid the accommodation fee.
- Accommodation will be given on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Delegates who require accommodation for days other than the days of the conference must inform the Secretariat beforehand, and may be provided accommodation outside campus.
- Accommodation is not transferable to another person.

3. Conduct

- Delegates must follow the same code of conduct as in committee sessions.
- Alcohol, smoking, drugs, weapons and any illegal substances are strictly prohibited.
- Delegates must follow all hostel/dormitory norms and observe quiet hours, especially from 11 PM to 6 AM.
- Visitors, including other delegates, are not allowed in rooms of the opposite gender, and outside guests are not allowed.
- Delegates must not tamper with electrical fittings or use heaters or cooking appliances in rooms.

4. Safety and Security

- Delegates should carry the organizers' emergency contact numbers at all times.
- Delegates are responsible for their own valuables, and the organizers are not liable for loss or theft.
- Any medical emergency or harassment must be reported immediately to the Secretariat.

5. Damage and Penalties

- Delegates are liable for damage to property.
- Violations may lead to a warning, a fine, eviction without refund, and informing the delegate's faculty advisor or institution.
- Serious misconduct may lead to disqualification from awards or removal from the conference.

6. Refunds

All refund requests must be mailed to iist.mun.delegate@gmail.com.

- 100% of the accommodation fees will be refunded if mailed within two days of payment of accommodation fees.
- 50% of the accommodation fees will be refunded if mailed after two days and before five days from the payment of accommodation fees.
